

Within the eight million acres of National Forest lands and upon additional privately owned millions of acres there grazes 1,284,000 head of stock sheep.

12

*Along the R
Geo A Fisher*

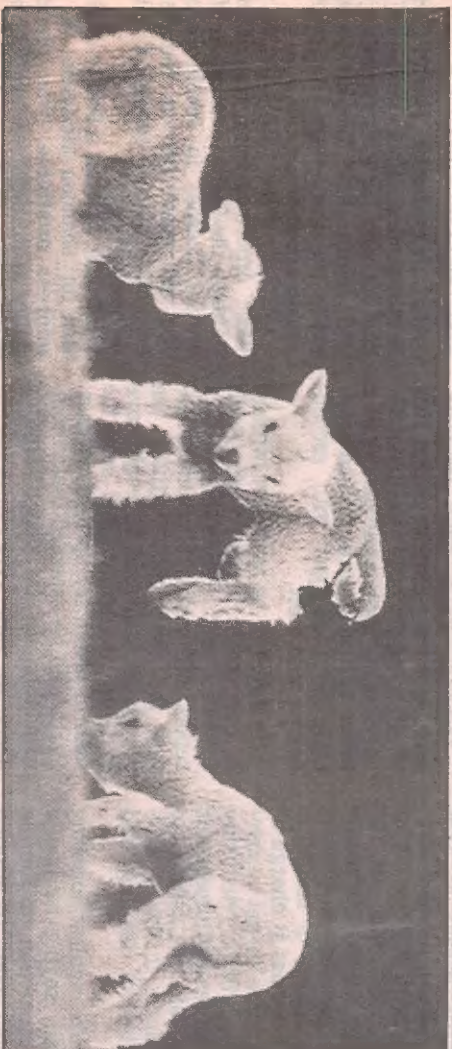

Every Day
Love the beautiful,
Seek out the true,
Wish for the good,
And the best do!
Felix Mendelssohn

A Romanian shepherd epitomizes the country's agrarian lifestyle.

AP Laserphoto

Stand 'baa'ck

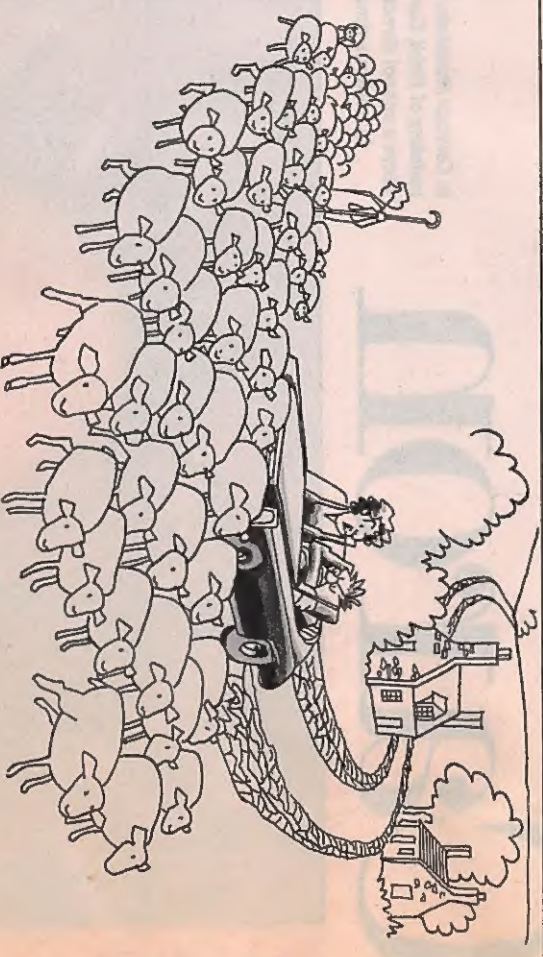

A young lamb kicks up its heels while air earlier this week at a farm in East two others look on in the warm spring Parsonfield, Maine.

4-6-91

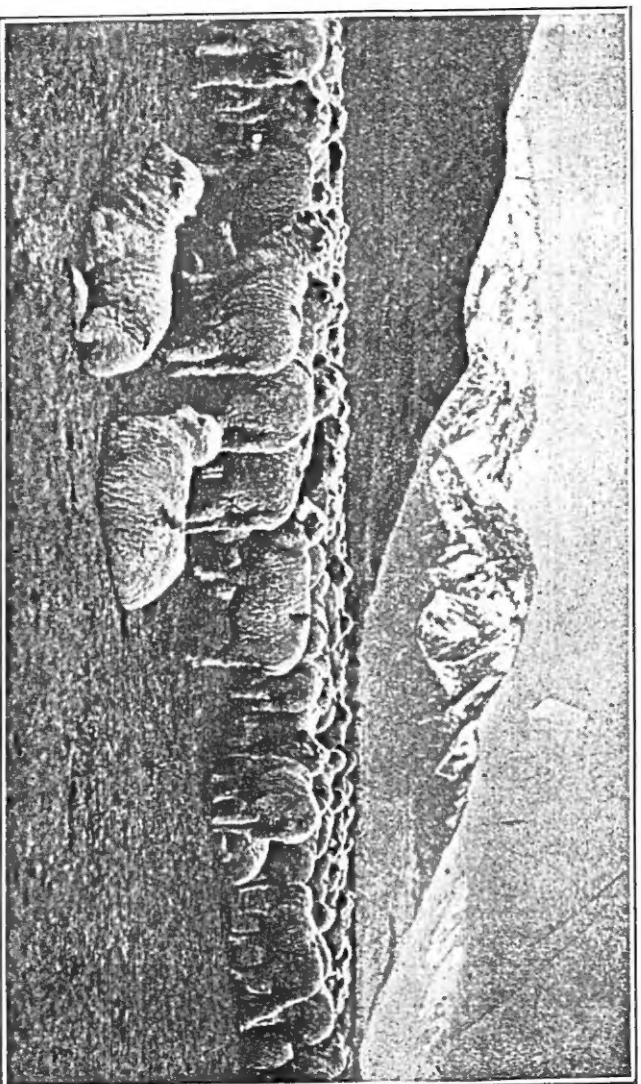

Sheep are taken into the mountains to graze during the summer.

Laugh Parade®

"So this is the short cut that will save us two hours!"

UTAH MOUNTAIN SHEEP ON RANGE

Courtesy Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce.

Utah-Steried Domain
70/1

ROCKSPRINGS Pop. 1,454 Alt. 2,450 Map L-12

General—Established 1891, named for springs prized as water source by wagon trains and Indians. In highest area of rugged, scenic Edwards Plateau known locally as the Hill Country. Climate is cool and dry in summer, mild and sunny in winter. Area is popular year-round vacation spot offering camping, picnicking, hiking, and rock collecting. During specified seasons hunters take white-tailed deer, wild turkey and upland game birds. Fishing on nearby South Llano and Nueces Rivers.

ANGORA GOATS IN ROCKSPRINGS AREA PRODUCE LUXURIOUS MOHAIR

Angora Goat Breeders' Association Museum—Includes pictures, records and early history of Angora goat-raising industry. Only registry office for industry in the nation. Open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - noon, 1:30 - 4:30 p.m. Austin St.

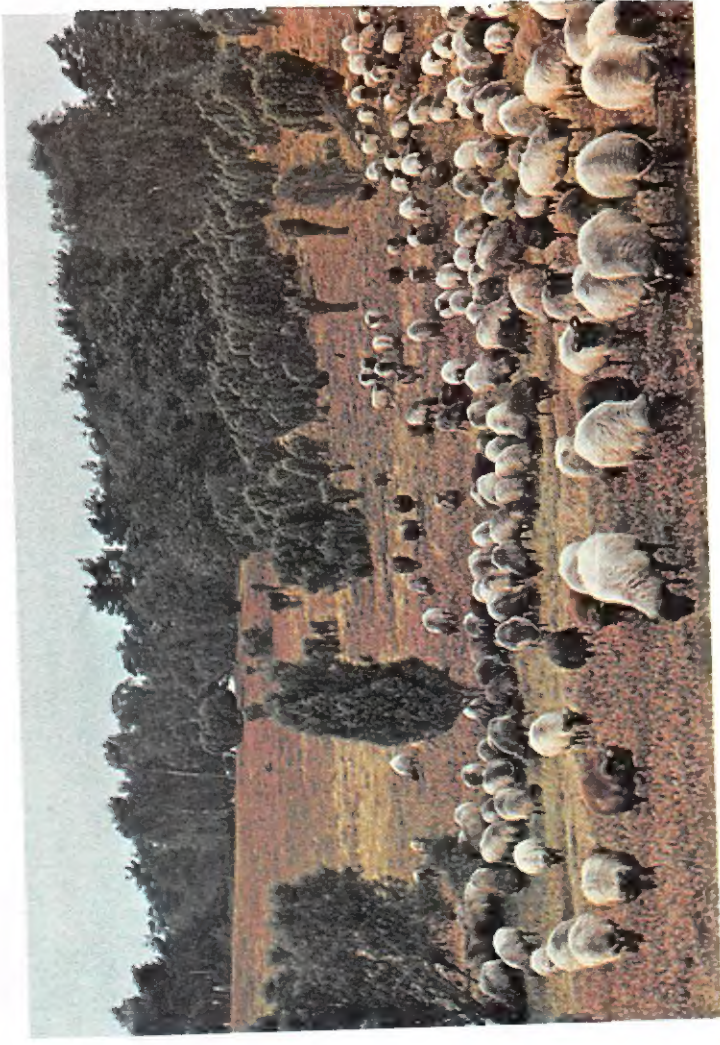

Scenic Drives—Most highways from Rocksprings are scenic routes through the rugged Hill Country, especially R.M. 674 south, U.S. 377 southwest and U.S. 377 northeast.

Cattle and sheep on the Routt National Forest.

W. E. Bedell

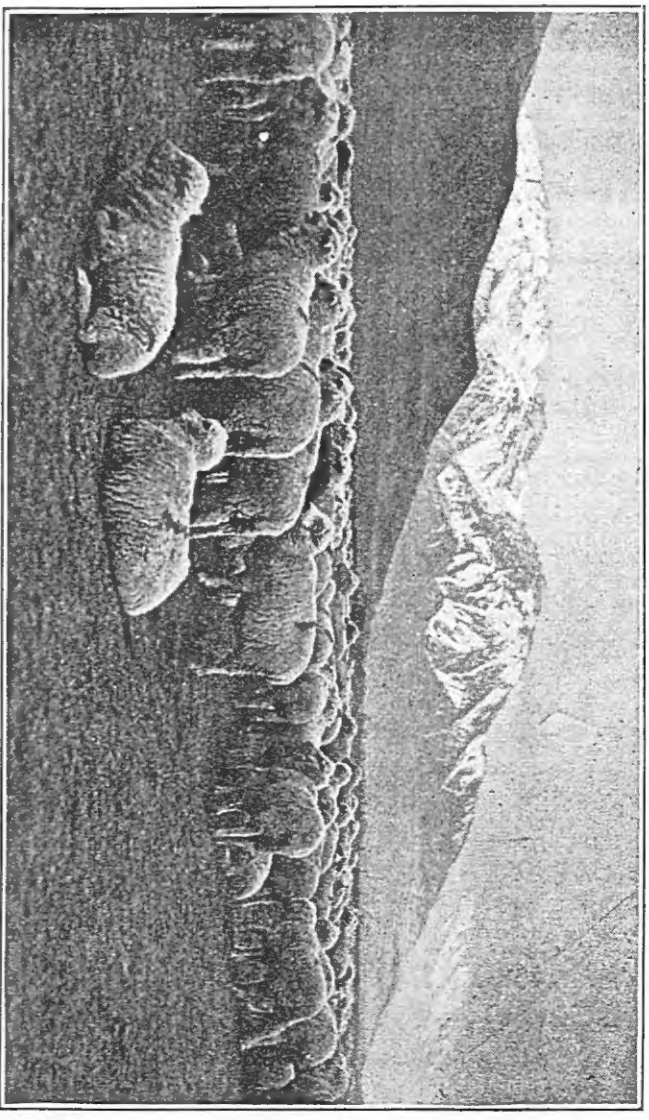

Sheep graze on the West German countryside. What areas of the United States are also well suited for raising sheep?

A shepherd in the Georgian Soviet republic. A few herds such as this one are privately owned. Why do you think this is so?

Typical Scenes on Utah Sheep Ranges

UTAH MOUNTAIN SHEEP ON RANGE

Courtesy Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce.

Herding Sheep in the Big Horn Mountains

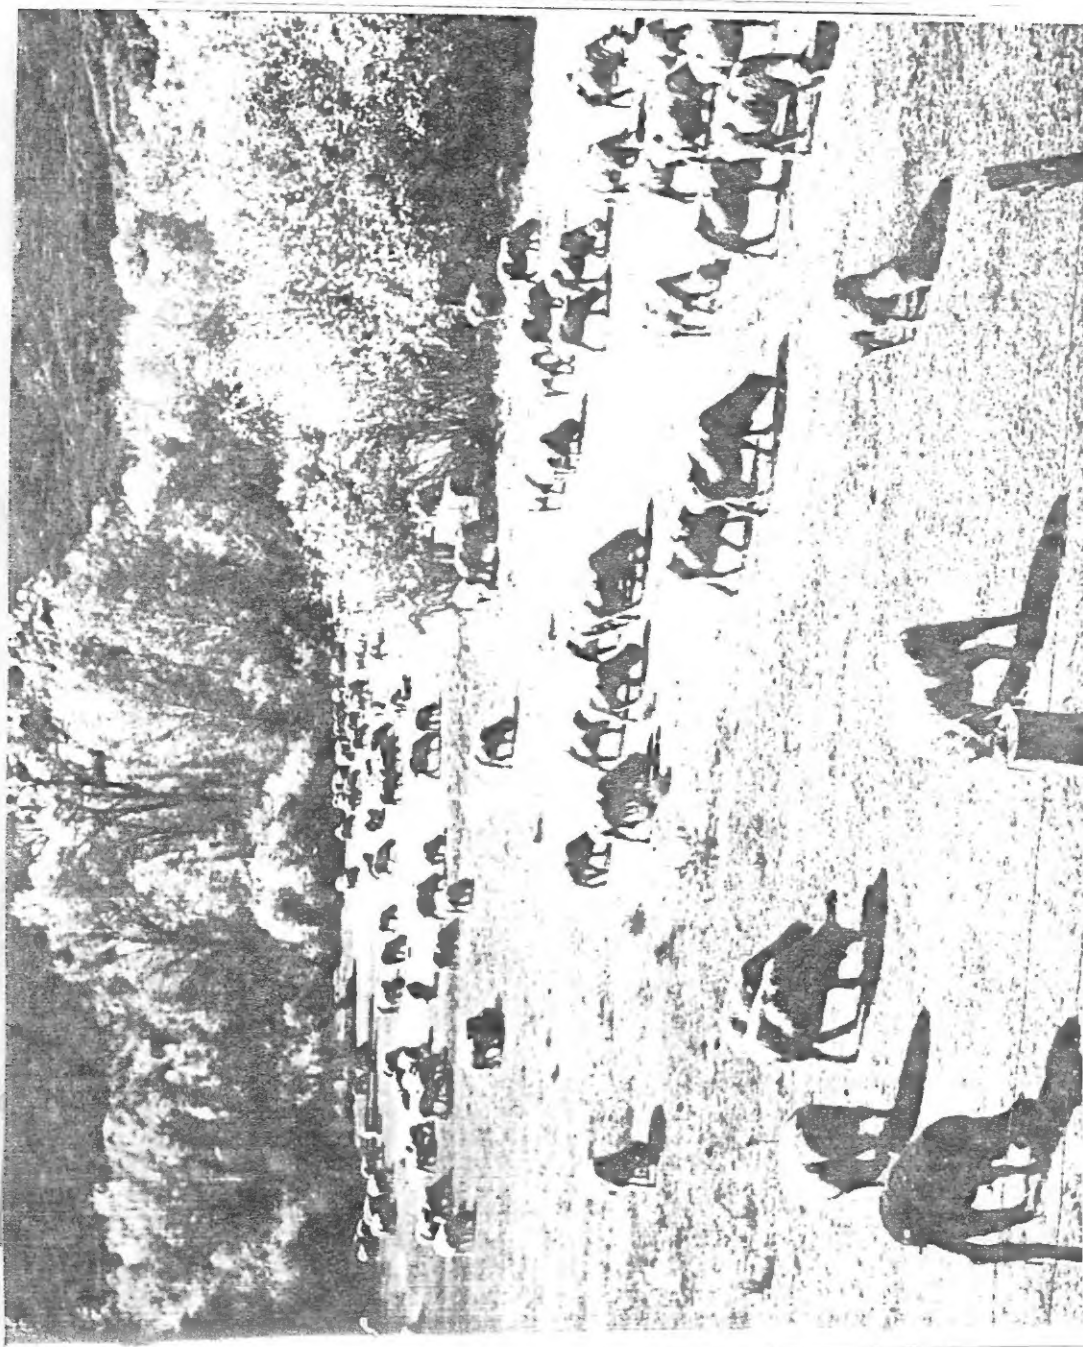

Photo — courtesy Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce

Herd of sheep pasturing in Utah highlands